My dear Sir:

I beg to submit to you herewith a photograph of W. Valentine's bust of Com: Maury, -

The Friesan Art Gallery proposes a bust of Humboldt, and believing it would be agreeable to the author-ties of that Institution, & have that of many, as its proper Companion Price. I have asked W. Valentini for the enclosed to present to you - W. Valentini is exceedingly modest in his disposition to press his work upon the attention of those least able to appreciate it. - He is now engaged on a large work which he contemplates sending to the Academy, London. - Jan 26. 1852.

John Ott.

In the Marry Bust is engraved & always
 H. Maury writes to Mr Valentine:

"I Thank you for the photograph of your bust of Maury.

It is the very "counterfeit presentment" of the man himself. - I have never seen any portrait of any man so like the original, - and so pleasing to all who knew him well, as your bust of M. F. Maury. - no one can know as to this better than I, for from my earliest recollection he was more than a father to me - and my most intimate associate and friend.

(signed) Very Truly yours
 Dabney H. Maury "

Dear Sir.

I wish to get some exact information in regard to the Ghiberti Gates, a cast of which I remember seeing in The Corcoran Gallery. Will you be kind enough to give me the dimensions or tell me where such information can be found.

I have excellent photographs of both gates but can find only very general descriptions and will be greatly obliged for your assistance in the matter if it is not too much trouble.

Very truly yours.

RULES FOR THE ADMISSION OF WORKS OF ART

TO THE

Corcoran Gallery of Art

Adopted by the Board of Trustees, March 8, 1878.

1. Pictures offered for exhibition, properly framed and in suitable condition, shall be placed in the Trustees' room for inspection by the Committee on Works of Art, and, if approved, shall be assigned a place by the Curator, who shall have them hung under the direction of the same committee.

2. No Works of Art admitted to the Gallery shall be removed in less than thirty (30) days after being deposited, or remain longer than four (4) months, except by the consent of the Committee on Works of Art.

3. At the expiration of the time stipulated for the exhibition of any Work of Art, the owner, or his representative, shall be requested by the Curator to remove the same; and if he fail to comply with this request, it shall be the duty of the Curator to have the said work, properly protected, stored in some suitable place, the entire cost of which shall be charged to the owner, and for the payment of which charges the work shall be retained as security, and if the property so stored be not redeemed in a reasonable time by the reimbursement of the entire expenses of removal and storage, then it shall be lawful for the Trustees to sell such works at public sale, after reasonable public notice, for cash, and hold the residue, after the payment of the expenses and storage aforesaid, subject to the order of the owner, or his representative.

4. The Gallery shall be at no expense for Works of Art on exhibition or stored away, or responsible for any damage by fire, or otherwise, ordinary care having been taken of them.

5. These rules shall be subscribed by all persons whose works shall be hereafter admitted, and the same shall thereupon become a contract between them and the Trustees, legally binding on both, and also binding on the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of the depositor or owner of the work put on exhibition.

6. No deviation shall be made herefrom without the consent of the Board of Trustees.

quently his guests, & sat under the portrait, which was one of his most cherished possessions, in his parlour.
In what year it came into his hands, I am unable to say, or more than that it is attributed to Polk & was always understood to be from life.
I sent to Gen. Brighton & to J.R.

Truman memo^a of all I could ascertain about the picture. The handling & detail show proof, as you are artist enough to perceive, of the work's having been done from reality.

You must have been mistaken in supposing Mr. Barlow to have seen "other portraits of W. by Polk in Winchester." Probably you misunderstood him to use the two words I underscore.

Of course, no claim is made for any particular artistic merit in this work. But it is not out of draugh-ing like the head by R. Peale & Truman.

Dear Sir

I have your favour of yesterday.

I thought the "Washington" in fair condition when sent down to the City two or three months since, & it can hardly have changed much since. Probably cleaning would be of service. Some a later most old pictures need it. But both that & what "cleaning" it may need (& cleaning should be done as slightly, carefully & to great superficially as possible) I would prefer if it remains in my hands doing myself, being an artist by profession. Should consider purchase, as I wish it to do, an object could be selected if the committee think best, & his fee might be deducted from this price. You know that no mischief like that wrought by ordinary picture-cleaners begets art.

I have hanging before me a picture re-backed by W. Barlow four years ago. He charged me $5. It is very neatly done; but not more so than I could have done myself, & I would have retained the old contemporary sketches, which W. B. did not. That adds to the value, authenticity & interest of a picture. It is one of the "Evidences". W. B. had the good sense not to touch the face of the picture. — which is, I may remark a fine head of the early part of the 17th century that belonged to Joseph Bonaparte — ex-King of Spain, & was presented by him to St. Louis. Lopez, a townsman & friend of the Bonapartes in Ajaccio, & by him presented to me.

It claims to be an original head of Salutor Rosa by himself. W. Barlow thinks it authentic. I have had the idea of sending this to your gallery. You would pronounce it in bad order; but the whole scheme, in form, light & shade, & colour, is distinct enough, & the treatment is worthy of the hand assigned it.

As to the history of my "Washington". It belonged to my great uncle Rev. Dr. Balmain (1740-1821) of Scotland & this town. On his widow's death in 1841 it passed to my father & on his in 1855 to me. Dr. B. was a Chaplain in the Revolution, personally intimate with the Lees, Madisons, Marshall & other leaders of the day. He married a cousin of Madison, & these friendships were fre-
